

I have been listening to KLOVE [Denver area] for about one year. It has been such a blessing to me to hear the type of music and discussions that KLOVE airs. I have spoken with many co-workers who also listen to this radio station and everyone feels it is a real benefit to the community. It points you in the right direction for a variety of help. It is perhaps the only contact some people have with "religion" and it may be the only time some people are in touch with God. I would hate for this station to be banished from the air just because the advocates of LPFM have louder voices or carry more weight than the smaller stations like KLOVE.
